Enterprise Waste Management Ltd Health and Safety General Policy

We at Enterprise Waste Management Ltd recognise our duties under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and the accompanying protective legislation. We will endeavor to meet the requirements of this legislation so as to ensure that we maintain a safe and healthy working environment. Our managers and supervisory staff are informed of their responsibilities to ensure they take all reasonable precautions, to ensure the safety, health and welfare of those that are likely to be affected by our undertaking.

Enterprise Waste Management Ltd recognises so far as is reasonably practicable the duty to ensure the following:

- To provide the adequate resources to maintain a safe place of work, safe systems of work, safe equipment and a healthy and safe working environment.
- To ensure that hazards are identified and regular assessments of risks are undertaken.
- To provide information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to ensure employees and others are assured of a safe and healthy working environment.
- To promote awareness of health and safety and encourage health and safety best practice throughout our organisation.
- To ensure that we have access to competent advice and are able to secure compliance with our statutory duties.

In order that we can achieve our objectives, and ensure our employees recognise their duties under health and safety legislation whilst at work, we must ensure that we inform them of their duty to take reasonable care of themselves and others that may be affected by their activities. We ensure our employees are informed of their obligations to ensure they co-operate with management and adhere with our safety rules, which are provided within the Employee Safety Handbook.
